

ABOUT
CONFERENCE
PAST COMMITTEES
DELEGATES
REGISTRATION
PARTNERSHIP

SALTING THE FIELDS: SEIGE OF CARTHAGE DURING THE THIRD PUNIC WAR, 149 BCE

It's 149 BCE. Problems for Carthage are reaching a critical mass. The Carthaginian Empire is crumbling all around its capital city. After the first two Punic Wars, Carthaginian territories and influence were rolled back across the Mediterranean by the Roman Republic.

Meanwhile, its archenemy has only grown stronger, more powerful, and bolder in its quest for territorial expansion. All of this is coming to a head. Rome is spoiling for a fight to knock out Carthage once and for all. To wipe the city off the face of the map. To become the sole pole in the region. Who will stand up and resist? Who will fight for Carthage? Who will beat back the Romans? Will you answer the call to save the Carthaginian people? The world is watching and waiting to see.

DOWNLOAD BACKGROUND GUIDE

THOMAS WEIL
CHAIR

ALEXANDER VINAROV
CRISIS DIRECTOR

ISABEL O'MALLEY-KROHN
CRISIS DIRECTOR

SECRETARIAT OVERSIGHT:

JOSH SULKIN, UNDER-SECRETARY-GENERAL